

REGULATION OF PRICES FOR SCHOOL UNIFORMS

NO "ARISTOCRACY" IN CITY HIGH SCHOOL.

Objections by Parents to Buying Uniforms for Boys Centers Around Junior High.

Rumors have been circulated that there were objections on the part of the parents to buying the khaki uniforms for their schoolboys, and an effort has been made to reach the consensus of opinion.

A prominent member of the Parent-Teachers' association who has given much time to school work said she had heard complaints by different mothers and she had advised them to make their objections known in a personal interview with the school heads. The complaint was a dissimilarity in the uniforms. Some boys were reported to have bought outfits costing as high as $65 or more, while others were compelled to accept a much cheaper grade of uniform and to feel the sting of comparison.

No case has been brought to light where a boy is out of school, at least the public schools, on account of not having the regulation khaki uniform. At present there is no uniformity of prices, and a boy can buy his uniform all the way from $11 or $12 up to most any price he feels inclined to pay, just as he would his regular winter clothing.

When this was mentioned to Commissioner Huffaker, he said that was exactly what he was working on. He is having bids submitted and expects to get a concession in prices by the contract plan. Last year, he said, he saved the boys about $250,000 each in this way, and some have their suits this year. Not a single complaint has reached the commissioner. He says the boys are too anxious to get into it, and expects that there isn't the slightest room for complaint, since the boys have until November to purchase the uniforms, and that they would have to have winter clothing any way. As to overcosts, he said they were not coming to have them in the khaki, but could wear any they had. It was his opinion that the uniforms would not cost any more than a boy's suit would, any way.

When told that some of the boys were paying as high as $65 for a suit, he said that was evidently not in the Chattanooga public school; that at the City High school they didn't want aristocracy, for they were democratic there.

Military Drills Kept Up.
No military director has been appointed at the City High to take the place of the instructor, B. S. Patrick, who was commissioned a first lieutenant and left for Camp Greene, at Charlotte, N. C., last week.

Morris Cunningham, a cadet and member of the junior class, is at present directing the drill until some one is appointed. The boys drill every school day on Chamberlain field from 10:50 till 12 o'clock, and it is compulsory that they wear uniforms.

Central Boys in Uniform.
Prof. J. S. Ziegler, principal of Central High school, says that it is compulsory for boys to have the khaki uniforms. They have drills for fifty-five minutes every day. W. J. Smith, a cadet from the University of Tennessee, is the instructor. He also took special training at Fort Oglethorpe.

Prof. Ziegler says the boys can get the uniforms at a price not exceeding that of their usual winter suit, itemizing it as follows: Pants, $3; shirt, $2.50; hat, $2.50; leggings, $1.50. The shoes will cost according to the quality they buy, and some of the boys are buying more expensive goods than included in these figures. In Prof. Ziegler's opinion, the uniform will save the parents money. Besides the boys are anxious to get into the uniform.

The most noise that has been made over the purchase of the suits comes from the vicinity of the Junior High. Prof. N. C. Carr says there was considerable neighborhood talk before the parents understood the situation, but there has been only one complaint made direct to him, which was from a mother who had three boys in the

ESSENTIAL TO BUILDING UP SCHOOLS OF COUNTY

Aims of Parent-Teachers' Association—Campaign for Membership.

Too often the question is asked, "What is this Parent-Teachers' Association? What does it do, and why is it so important in the life of the school?" With the big drive on for new members, it is the hope of the association, that every mother in the public schools will see something about this association and join.

At present there is a membership of over 1,000 in the Parent-Teachers' association, but those interested in the campaign state that they want every mother of every child in the public schools to join the association. The president says that no woman can do better work than to stand squarely back of the teacher in her efforts for good schools. With the big drive on for new members, it is the hope of the association, that every mother in the public schools will see something about this association and join.

W. R. C. Flag Floats
On Cumberland School

The second flag that has ever floated on a school in Cumberland county is now waving over a school at Linaria, the community winning it as a prize in the recent fair. It was offered by the Woman's Relief Corps of this city. The appreciation and gratitude of the Woman's Committee at Crossville have been expressed in a letter to the corps from Mrs. Amelia B. Cope. Mrs. Cope was for many years a teacher in the public schools of Hamilton county but was recently to Cumberland county to accept the position as county home demonstration agent. The fair, she says, was the largest and best ever held in that section. Crowds of people gathered to see the flag, and the notice displayed on the flag telling who the donor was. A special feature of the fair was the parade of the school children who competed for the flag. Mrs. Ida G. Sande, of this city, department instructor of the Tennessee Woman's Relief Corps, was instrumental in securing the banner for Mrs. Cope's county.

LIEUT. CHITWOOD PROMOTED.
Lieut. Edw. Allen Chitwood, of Camp Pike, Little Rock, Ark., was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Haggard and Miss Velma Haggard, east of Missionary ridge. Lieut. Chitwood was on his return trip from Chattanooga, O. He had been to take a troop of 500 soldiers. He graduated from the third officers' training camp at Fort Oglethorpe, and was commissioned second lieutenant and sent to Camp Gordon as instructor in bayonet practice. He was recently promoted to first lieutenant, and sent to Camp Pike.

LIEUT. CONNER IN FRANCE.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Conner of Mission ridge, have received news of the safe arrival of their son, Lieut. A. H. Conner. Lieut. Conner was one of the first volunteers of the Chattanooga Tank company. Later he was commissioned first lieutenant and transferred to the 203rd Tank Corps, Company A, stationed at Gettysburg, Pa.

GEORGIA GIRL QUEST HER.
Miss May Bailey of Summerville, Ga., is the guest of Mrs. Clark C. Brand on Lookout mountain. Miss Bailey possesses a clear soprano voice and has contributed much to the musical features at the Lookout mountain church during her visit here. A solo by Miss Clark at the morning service Sunday was enjoyed.

GIFTS FOR BELGIAN RELIEF.
Mrs. J. B. Hartford, chairman of the St. Elmo Red Cross auxiliary, requests that all who wish to donate gifts for the Belgium relief fund, please send same to her home, 414 St. Elmo avenue. A committee composed of the officers of the auxiliary will deliver the articles to headquarters.

A meeting of the Girls' home association will be held Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the club room in the courthouse.

WOMEN OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH TO SEW FOR ORPHANS.
The Red Cross circle of the Second Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday at 9 a. m. at the church to sew for the Vine Street orphanage.

Dr. Willard Steele, one of Chattanooga's most prominent physicians, has been commissioned first lieutenant in the United States army and reported to Camp Greenleaf Tuesday morning for duty in the hospital department. Lieut. Steele is the son of Dr. and Mrs. N. C. Steele of Mission ridge, and for the past several years has been associated with his father, with offices in the Hamilton Bank building. He is a specialist in the treatment of eye, ear and throat troubles.

NO MORE CATARRH
A Guaranteed Treatment That Has Stood the Test of Time.

Catarrh cures come and catarrh cures go, but Hyomel continues to heal catarrh and abolish its disgusting symptoms wherever civilization exists. Every year the already enormous sales of this really scientific treatment for catarrh grow greater, and the present year should show all records broken.

If you breathe Hyomel daily as directed it will end your catarrh, or it won't cost you a cent.

If you have a hard rubber Hyomel inhaler somewhere around the house, get it out and start it at once to forever rid yourself of catarrh.

Jo Anderson, or any other good druggist, will sell you a bottle of Hyomel (liquid, start to breathe it and notice how quickly it clears out the air passages and makes the entire head feel fine.

Hyomel used regularly will end catarrh, coughs, colds, bronchitis or asthma. A complete outfit, including a hard rubber pocket inhaler and bottle of Hyomel, costs but little. No stomachic doses; just breathe it. It kills the germs, soothes and heals the inflamed membrane.—(Adv.)
